... silent prayer...
What is the Jesus Prayer?
What is the Jesus Prayer?

- Goes back to 5-6th century Nitria, the desert in Egypt, where monks prayed “arrow prayers”
- This presentation intended to be impressionistic, not a “classroom” presentation
- Talk can be boiled down to one word: Ask
What is the Jesus Prayer?

- The Jesus Prayer is also known as “The Prayer of the Heart”
- An ancient prayer
- One way of opening our hearts to God
- A love song to the person Jesus
What is the Jesus Prayer?

- The classic form, as handed down from 5th-6th century: “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner”
  - Inhalation: “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God
  - Exhalation: “have mercy on me, a sinner”
What is the Jesus Prayer?

- Shorter version: “Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me”
- Monks of old: “Lord, make haste to help me. Lord make speed to save me.”
What is the Jesus Prayer?

- The history of the prayer goes back to Diadochos in the late 5th, early 6th century
- Repetition of the prayer leads to an inner silence, called hesychia
- In fourth century Egypt, in Nitria, short "arrow" prayers were practiced
  - "Assault" heaven with "arrow" prayers
What is the Jesus Prayer?

- Don’t be afraid to pray to Jesus that you love him
  - Another variation of Jesus Prayer: “Lord Jesus Christ, I love you”
- St. Paul calls upon us to pray ceaselessly (1 Thessalonians 5:17)
- The Jesus prayer is one good way we can “pray ceaselessly” †
The Power of the Name
The Power of the Name

- Biblically, knowing a person’s name gave the speaker power over that person. Name was linked with being.
- Jesus explicitly asked us to use God’s name in prayer: “Abba,” or Father.
- Jesus and the Father are one.
  - Jesus said, “He who sees me sees the Father. The Father and I are one.”
  - So when we pray to Jesus, we also pray to the Father.
The Power of the Name

- Jesus tells us, “ask, and you shall receive”
  - Why? So that your joy may be full
- The first half the Jesus’ Prayer stresses the name of Jesus to:
  - remind us of his presence
  - allow us to share in his power †
The Meaning of Mercy
The Meaning of Mercy

- Second half of the Jesus Prayer stresses God’s mercy. Mercy in Hebrew hesed means:
  - Loving kindness
  - Everlasting love
- Our basic need as human beings is to be loved, and to love
- In praying “Have mercy on me,” we are asking God “have your love on me”
The Meaning of Mercy

- The Greek word for mercy eleison comes from a root word elaion meaning “olive”
- Even today in the Middle East, olive oil is used for healing
- In praying “have mercy on me,” we are asking God to have “warm healing olive oil on my hard soul.”
Facing Crises When Prayer is a Habit
Prayer as a Hidden Martyrdom
Prayer as Hidden Martyrdom

- Praying repetitively is an inner asceticism
- Praying without ceasing is a “hidden martyrdom,” said St. Ignatius Brianchaninov
  - Our ego does not want to think about God
Prayer as Hidden Martyrdom

- Prayer requires courage; the whole ensemble of nature’s energies is in opposition, says Archimandrite Sophrony (Sakharov)

- Our call is a martyrdom that:
  - Involves being attentive to the present moment
  - Relying on God’s power, and doing God’s will
Who Can Say the Prayer?
Who Can Say the Prayer

- Anyone, everyone can say the Jesus Prayer
- One may safely say the prayer without a spiritual director or guide, so long as one limits the duration of saying the prayer (~ 15 minutes at a time) †
Formal and Free Use of the Jesus Prayer
Formal and Free Use

Two ways to say the prayer:

- Formally
- Freely

Formal use:

- Posture: seated in chair, eyes closed; or standing at icons
- Duration: 10 to 20 minutes
- Say the prayer gently and repetitively
- Morning or evening recommended
Formal and Free Use

- Free use:
  - All other times of day or night when we are not otherwise engaged
  - Such as while doing semiautomatic tasks like driving or doing the dishes, walking, or being unable to sleep
  - Times of extreme concern or upset
The voice is God is so delicate, so easy to resist: how can we be “quiet” enough to hear the voice of God in our daily life?

In the speaking is the listening

Speak, pray to God in a soft, barely audible, out loud voice

- Hearing one’s voice makes it easier to concentrate and lowers the level of distraction
- One way of engaging the body in prayer †
Prayer of the Heart
Prayer of the Heart

- The Jesus Prayer is also called the “Prayer of the Heart”
- In Orthodoxy, the mind and the heart are often seen as “one”
  - St Theophan tells us to keep our “mind in the heart” at all times
Prayer of the Heart

- Heart here means:
  - The physical muscle
  - Our emotions and feelings
  - Our spirit or innermost core

- Our heart is our innermost chamber, our secret dwelling place where God lives.
Prayer of the Heart

“The heart is but a small vessel; yet dragons and lions are there, and there are poisonous creatures and all the treasures of wickedness; rough uneven paths are there, and gaping chasms. There likewise is God, there are the angels, the heavenly cities and the treasures of grace; all things are there.” (St. Macarius)
Prayer of the Heart

- Our heart is a:
  - dimension of our interior consciousness
  - a sacred space
  - a “field of divine energy”

within us †
Intercessory Prayer
Intercessory Prayer

- Is intercessory prayer self-centered?
- Does God hear our prayers?
- Example: St. Therese and Henri Pranzini
- Intercessory prayers work in the divine realm
Intercessory Prayer

- It is important for us to pray for others – those around us need us to pray for them.
- God hears every prayer we say for another, and answers each prayer for the other person’s good
- Another example: St. Monica and Augustine
Intercessory Prayer

Ways of doing intercessory prayer for another:

- “Lord Jesus Christ of God, have mercy on [name]”
- “The following prayers are for [name]:
  “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me a sinner” . . . †
Silence as a Choice: Inner and Outer
Silence as Choice

- The Jesus Prayer requires an outer and inner silence
- Silence is a choice
- Christians may be said to order and measure their lives from communion to communion, and from silence to silence
  - There are many lesser ways which we can choose to measure our lives ✤
Silence as Choice

- We order and measure our lives by the things that we choose
- We should strive to make our Lord “the marker” for the ordering and measuring of our lives
Silence as Choice

- Silence at its best is God-awareness: we quiet down our outer and inner selves to hear God, whose words are like “the flutter of a bird’s wings”
  - Outer silence is a choice
  - Inner silence can be achieved by substituting one thought for another
- The Jesus Prayer can override our usual compulsive stream of thoughts and anxieties
Technique and Psychosomatic Issues
Technique

- We pray body and soul, which are a single unit. The body has a role in prayer

- How we can involve the body:
  - Breathing
    - In: “Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God,
    - Out: “have mercy on me, a sinner…”
  - Inner exploration: following our breath around our bodies
  - Orientation and Posture: face the east
Technique

- Orthodox prayer ropes are soft and made of wool. Their purpose is to aid concentration, not necessarily to keep count.
- Praying more is not better; love is not proportional to quantity.
  - We do not have to imitate the pilgrim in the famous book The Way of the Pilgrim.
Technique

- We don’t pray the Jesus Prayer for personal benefit, but so we can get closer to Jesus and become more like him
- Every prayer is an act of love, made to the Author of Love †
